

You who ride ancient skies above

You who ride ancient skies above,
Thundering with mercy and with love,
Come and move in this Your dwelling place;
Reveal Your power, glory and Your grace.

*Take Your place on our praises today,
Take Your place on our praises we pray.
Jesus, our Saviour,
Worthy of honour arise on our praises today.*

(Repeat verse 1)

You who walked the road of suffering,
Gave Your life a ransom for our sin.
Now we stand a witness to our King:
Who was and is and will return again.

(Repeat chorus x 2)
